A top-down view of a grazing table. The table is filled with a variety of cheeses, including wedges of cheddar and slices of brie. There are also cured meats like prosciutto and salami, along with breads such as ciabatta and crackers. Other items include olives, pickles, nuts, and fresh fruits like grapes and figs. The table is styled with a mix of white ceramic plates and wooden cutting boards, and is garnished with fresh herbs like rosemary. The overall aesthetic is rustic and elegant.
